Office of IAA Europe
Berlin, June 22, 2017

To the National Committees of IAA/AIAP Europe,
Dear colleagues,

we are pleased to welcome you at the 13th General Assembly of IAA/AIAP Europe and the Get Together 2017 - Ireland's National Day for Visual Artists which will be held September 14-16 in Dublin, Ireland, with an optional visit to Belfast Northern Ireland. The General Assembly is organized in cooperation with Visual Artists Ireland. The Get Together is hosted by Visual Artists Ireland.

Official Registration: Please register as soon as possible. Each delegate and possibly observer from your National Committee who will be participating should register individually through the online system <http://visualartists.ie/iaa-general-assembly-dublin-2017/>

Deadline for official registration for all events is August 14, 2017. The registration process also includes the optional events taking place during your visit.

Visas: For those who require visas please note that Visual Artists Ireland will provide a letter of invitation to facilitate your application. Please check <https://www.dfa.ie/travel/visas/visas-for-ireland/> to see if you require a VISA for the Republic of Ireland. If you are traveling to Belfast, Northern Ireland, this is the separate VISA system and requires a UK visa. You can check on this at <https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa>

Please note that if you are travelling to the Republic of Ireland, and you intend to also visit Northern Ireland and return to the Republic, you must obtain a multiple-entry Irish visa and a UK visa.

To arrange for an invitation please email bernadette@visualartists.ie with the following details: Name, Organisation, Title, Address of your organization, and if you are extending your visit beyond the dates of the event. Unfortunately, Visual Artists Ireland will not be able to be a financial guarantor for your visit, so we strongly suggest that you double check all details before making the VISA application so that you can have all of the information that you require in place.

Accommodation: As hotel rooms are at a premium in Dublin we have been unable to pre-book rooms. We suggest that you book a room urgently. With some sites such as booking.com you can make a booking that can be later cancelled if you find that you are unable to come. Below you will find a recommendation of hotels, a respective link to booking.com and transport details. Please note that the National Committees need to cover the costs for travel, accommodations and some meals of the delegates by themselves.

Schedule: Please find a brief schedule overview attached. The detailed schedule including the agenda of the General Assembly and the final program of the Get Together as well as more information about the trip to Belfast and evening activities will be sent to you later.

Submission of National Report: We kindly ask the NCs to send the national report in brief written form until August 14, 2017. We will send them to all NC's before the GA.

Deadline: August 14, 2017 Please keep in mind that there is one common deadline for:

- Official Registration
- Participation in the trip to Belfast (see details below in schedule overview)
- Submission of National Report

After this date the booking system will be closed automatically. Late applications are not possible.

We are really looking forward to seeing you in Berlin.

With best regards,

Werner Schaub
President IAA Europe

General Assembly IAA

The agenda of the 13th General Assembly of IAA Europe will be sent to you later close to the date.

Get Together 2017

All NC representatives are invited to attend Visual Artists Ireland's Get Together 2017 – Ireland's National Day for Visual Artists. The theme for 2017 is The Freedom to Work. NC Representatives will be invited as guests and provided with free entry, food and beverages on the day (normally 50 Euro for non-VAI members).

You are welcome to participate in the day which will have discussions, presentations, artists discussing their practice and their needs, as well as information from providers and support organisations who work with the visual arts. VAI staff will be available throughout the day to help with any Get Together specific queries that you may have.

Visit to Belfast, Northern Ireland

Our trip to Northern Ireland will depend on the number of people who wish to make the journey. If sufficient number show interest and book then we will arrange for a coach to go from Dublin to Belfast and back. If we don't have sufficient number for a coach we will go by train. Both methods take approximately two hours.

For budgeting, the price of a coach and the train are approximately the same. An average ticket will be around 60 Euro return.

We will confirm details of this after we have received bookings. Once this is confirmed we will contact you with final details and costs and ask for payment within 5 days to confirm your place on this trip.

Food will be self-organised in Belfast where there are a number of good value places in the city centre.

CURRENCY

The Republic of Ireland uses Euro. Northern Ireland, as part of the United Kingdom, uses Sterling which you can get at ATMs throughout the city if you need them. Debit and Credit Cards (VISA and Mastercard) are accepted in most locations.

SAFETY & RESPONSIBILITY

Both Dublin and Belfast are big cities but can be considered relatively safe. As with any other travel you are personally responsible for ensuring that you keep your belongings safe and secure. If you do have issues the Emergency Services number in Ireland is 999 This covers Police and Ambulances. You are responsible to ensure that you have all of your documentation in place should you need to access these.

MAP

We recommend that you stay within the following area which are walkable and also have public transport that can bring you to the different venues. To walk from the city centre to our office takes approximately 10 minutes, and to walk from our office to The Irish Museum of Modern Art takes approximately 20 minutes. The 123, 40, 13 buses serve the route. Alternatively you can cross the river and take the LUAS tram to IMMA, getting out either at Heuston Station or James Hospital.

To get from the Airport to the City Centre there are a number of options.

- A Taxi rank is just outside of Departures
- AirCoach provide a service into the city centre stopping at multiple places
<http://www.aircoach.ie/>
- Public Transport takes you directly into the city centre -
<https://www.dublinbus.ie/Your-Journey1/Timetables/All-Timetables/74711/>

We suggest checking with your hotel as to which is the best option for your location.

What's on in Dublin during your visit.

We hope that you will also take time to visit and enjoy the famous hospitality of Dublin. We will send you a list of what's on with a gallery map closer to the date. In the meantime to give you some other ideas about our city, our website <http://visualartists.ie> has information on events and exhibitions, and <http://www.visitdublin.com/see-do> will give some ideas of places to go. One suggestion is to avoid restaurants and bars in the Temple Bar area. These are mainly tourist traps and don't best represent our city.

The local populations of Dublin and Belfast have a reputation for friendliness and laughter. So, welcome to both sides of Ireland, a land famous for its welcomes.
